

The SHEPHERD'S VOICE October 2017

*Then Jesus said to the Jews who had believed in him, "If you continue in my word, you are truly my disciples; and you will know the truth, and the truth will make you free."
(John 8:31-32)*

October is always festive for Lutherans. It is Reformation month. The sanctuary turns red, and we sing "A Mighty Fortress is Our God" with loud voices. I love Reformation worship. Growing up, Reformation Sunday was the only occasion when all the Lutheran churches in town gathered to worship together. Reformation Sunday has been very special to me for a long time. It does not matter whether Luther actually nailed the 95 Theses onto the Wittenberg Church door or not, but his re-discovery that God's grace is given freely made me feel closer to God. I thank God for Martin Luther.

This year Lutherans across the globe are especially joyous for marking 500 years of the Reformation movement. There are TV specials about Luther and/or the Reformation, and some places are having joint Catholic- Lutheran worship services. We are always re-forming to express and reveal God's salvation to the world.

Recently I have been thinking about the means of grace, the ways we experience God's love in our lives. In other words, where do I see God actively engaging in our messy daily lives? One day I saw God at fellowship hour after worship. Sitting around the tables, our members were enjoying coffee, juice, and good treats. Some were bringing drinks and treats to elderly members, and the older youth were playing with young children. Everyone was asking each other how things are going, teasing one another, laughing, and sharing concerns and joys. God's grace was overflowing from us to love and care for others. I thank God for you. You are truly disciples of Christ. Pr. Miho

From Deep Inside

Where the passing warmth of fall takes hold,
When the promise of future winter winds lurks
When the forgotten softness of spring has autumn take her place,
And spread vibrant colors across the trees
Where you hear the coo of doves and the purr of nestled kittens
When skies are cloudless and fields are waiting
Where the smile of a child resides and laughing spirits find refuge
From defeat comes the uncovered path to victory,
From the rolling thunder comes the calming rain
From inside is the power of trial, the touch of wisdom, the breath of daring
The cries of crowded silence mix with the clarity of solitude,
A blaze of courage streams from the cries of the weak
And the past gives birth to the flowering future
For, in the center of our psyche, the corners of our souls,
Rest the hands that hold these wonders
In the grasp of creation,
The fingers of Time
The depth of Man,
Held securely in the palm of God
Deep inside, and always there.

Singers needed for Synod-wide Reformation Ordination Worship and Celebration

This year marks the 500th anniversary of the Reformation, and we as Lutherans will honor this important occasion on Sunday, October 29 with a special synod-wide Reformation Ordination Worship and Celebration (<http://nisynod.org/nis-reformation-ordination-worship-and-celebration-october-29/>). This service will take place at 4:00pm at St. John's Lutheran Church (607-10th Avenue) in Mendota, IL.

All singers are invited and encouraged to sing in the festival choir. The rehearsal will begin at 2:30pm in the sanctuary. Please let me know if you plan to participate. Martin Luther had a profound impact on our worship, and being a musician himself, he knew the value and importance of music in worship. I am looking forward to directing the choir, and I hope that you will consider singing in the festival choir for this exciting event.

Additional information for this event is on the bulletin board.

If you are interested in singing for this event or need more information please contact:

If you are interested in singing in the choir for the festival there will be a group rehearsal from 2-2:25pm the day of the hymn festival. Singers are also invited to rehearse with the First Lutheran choir at 7:30pm on Thursday, October 19th.

PIECE CORPS

October 1st is Quilt Sunday. This year Piece Corps made over 650 quilts for distribution here in our community and by Lutheran World Relief (LWR) overseas. Quilts were also taken to Pine Ridge Indian Reservation by the Mission Trip Team, Hurricane Harvey, St Vincent in Monroe WI and local people in need.

We would like to particularly recognize and thank our summer helpers-Krista Keene and Anna Patterson, who spent their Wednesday mornings with us all summer.

There are so many people who help make this ministry possible: the sewers, fabric cutters, fabric batting, thread and money, and finally - those who pack-up and transport the quilts to Monroe, WI. and load them on the semi so they get to the people who need them.

But most of all, we thank God that He has given us Work to do that impacts so many others. We will never know all the people who benefit from our quilts; but we know God's Love and Work is never done: and so each year we strive to do our best. If you know of a group or someone that needs a quilt please contact the Piece Corp Shirley Fox (815)369-5514 or call the church office at (815)369-5552.

“Piece Corp Quilts go to Texas!”

Sullivan’s sent a semi-truck of donated food and cleaning supplies to Texas for Hurricane Harvey victims. When Piece Corp heard of this effort, the Lena Sullivan’s Manager Randy was asked if we could send some quilts on their truck. They were happy to take our quilts. Piece Corps sent 209 quilts, 13 large bath towels and 25 hand towels and bath mats. All the items reached Texas on September 10th, and were unloaded the next day. We are thankful for all the wonderful people in our community and being able to share God’s Love and with those in Texas.
