

The SHEPHERD'S VOICE April 2020

*Then Jesus said to them, “ Do not be afraid; go and tell my brothers to go to Galilee; there they will see me.”
(Matthew 28:10)*

Dear God's beloved,

As I write this article, we are facing the COVID-19 crisis. Everyday there are new guidelines from the CDC and the state. Schools are closed, restaurants are offering only carry-out-orders, and more cases are reported. Our congregation decided to cancel all activities until Palm Sunday on April 5. We are living in times of uncertainty. Plans are constantly changing. We do not know what will happen next. It is a stressful time.

When I feel overwhelmed and stressed out, I try to breathe deep and connect with the words of God. These can be in hymns (like “A Mighty Fortress Is Our God”), devotion books, or the Japanese Bible to calm down my troubled soul. I was reading the March issue of Gather magazine. Gather is a magazine published by Women of the ELCA, and it has thought provoking, heartwarming, and faith growing articles. I like Gather and enjoy reading it. The March issue has an article by Anna Madsen about our call as Christians in times of crisis. Since I was constantly hearing news about COVID-19, I was drawn to the article.

She talks about her life, her vocation as a “single mama” for her two children, one “who is vulnerable on any number of fronts” due to an accident that devastated her family. Her family moved to Minnesota for better support from the state but she recognized those who cannot or have a difficult time relocating their lives. She asks “What, then, was the right thing to do?” I would like to encourage you to read the article (“Our Responsibility: What is our vocation in time of crisis or need?” Gather, March 2020 pp. 11-13). She concludes with reaffirming trust in Jesus. She writes, “We are all dying, all the time. We have much to feat, all the time. But as Christians, we believe that Jesus is risen from the dead. This faith knowledge of resurrection does no good if it isn't trusted.” (p.13)

We face crises. It can be global pandemic or war or natural disaster or health decline or an accident. But we know that Jesus is risen from the dead. The risen Jesus meets us in our troubled times. The risen Jesus reminds us that he is with us always to the end of age.

Friends, I pray for you. so please pray for those who are vulnerable, those who are working at hospitals, clinics, and nursing homes, those who provide care for children, and those who are ill. May God protect all God's beloved from danger. God be with you always.

Pr. Miho

Dear Friends in Christ,

Thank you for your recent gift of $1,000.00 to Lutheran Social Services of Illinois (LSSI). Your congregation is investing in the wellbeing of all Illinois Citizens, offering people the opportunity to reach their full, God-given potential.

Just as God sees each person in their entirety, LSSI seeks to provide whole person care to those receiving our services. The faithfulness of congregations like Good Shepherd Lutheran Church is critically important in this work.

For more than 150 years, LSSI has made the love of God tangible for those in need. We could not have served this long without dear friends like you. Please know how much we value your support and partnership in this ministry.

WOW! What a beautiful gift.

*Peace and prayers

Happy Thoughts

Our thoughts are often full of positive or negative emotions and are rarely neutral. If you want good things in your life, think positive and be thankful. Feel the joy, peace, and happiness. Keep your mind free from worry and fear. Do not waste mental energy on negative thinking.

A Pastoral Letter from Bishop Jeffrey Clements

March 17, 2020

Dear siblings in Christ:

Hear the words of the Psalmist:

*God is our refuge and strength,
a very present help in trouble.*

Therefore we will not fear, though the earth should change, though the mountains shake in the heart of the sea;

though its waters roar and foam, though the mountains tremble with its tumult. Psalm 46:1-3 (NRSV)

There is something about these days that is simply disorienting. The world we know has been upended and is not feeling very comfortable. In fact, it is just kind of scary. As we face the COVID-19 virus, allow me to remind you that God is with us. Everywhere and always. God is our refuge and strength. So, this is a time when we must intentionally stay connected to God.

It is difficult to stay connected to God while we are distancing ourselves from each other. We depend so much on our corporate worship for both connecting to God and to each other. If your congregation has not yet done so, I am recommending that all congregations of the Northern Illinois Synod suspend worship for the remainder of March. Our local, state and federal officials have asked for our cooperation. Now is not the time to think that you are the exception. “Social distancing” is meant to protect all of us. In recent days, I have also suggested to your pastor, interim pastor, vicar or Synodically Authorized Minister, to prepare for the possibility of not being together for Holy Week or Easter worship. I am not sure that you can understand how hard it is for me to even imagine that. I am, however, asking congregations to remain nimble enough to resume worship quickly when it becomes safer.

I am encouraging congregations to find ways to stay connected, using technology when it is possible. I have asked pastors to stay in communication with you and tend to your spiritual needs. The Internet has made many options available to us that we have not had in the past.

Here are three things we can do to keep the church strong in these difficult days:

1. JOIN TOGETHER IN PRAYER. I am calling this synod to pray together at noon each day. Please stop and take a moment to pray for your congregation, the Northern Illinois Synod and the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. Pray for your members. Pray for yourself. Pray for the ill, the frightened, the vulnerable, and the poor. Pray for the dying. Pray for world leaders and our own elected leaders. Pray for our healthcare workers. Pray for researchers. Pray for the unemployed, underemployed and laid off. Pray for all students from college to kindergarten who have been forced away from school. Pray for your pastor or whomever leads your congregation. Will you join me in prayer at noon beginning tomorrow and continuing through May 13?

2. PRACTICE SOUND FINANCIAL STEWARDSHIP. Your congregation is probably not prepared for a financial crisis. The church's ability to do ministry is dependent upon your regular gifts. The synod and churchwide expressions of the church are dependent upon the generosity of congregations. We will remain strong only if we continue to practice first fruits, proportionate giving. While we are away from corporate worship, please give electronically or mail a check to your congregation. Your pastor and the staff of your congregation is still working hard. Let's not make them worry about their paychecks. Let's maintain our gifts to food pantries, Lutheran Social Services, Grace Place, Lutheran Outdoor Ministries Center and the many other ministries we support. Will you join me in supporting the work of your congregation on a weekly basis?

3. DON'T LET SOCIAL DISTANCING BECOME SOCIAL ISOLATION. My heart has been broken by some of the stories that I have heard. Continue to extend the ministries of the church to the homebound. Take all the precautions to prevent the spread of illness, but check on your neighbors. If you head to the grocery store, shop for someone who cannot. A crisis such as this quickly exposes those who are the most vulnerable. That is who the church is called to serve. Be a source of encouragement. Will you join me in loving our neighbors and encouraging others?

It feels like the ground is shaking beneath us. These days are disorienting. But, we are in this together. We are church together. We are stronger together. Even when we cannot be together physically.

Thank you for your faithfulness. God bless and keep you.

Walking with you,

Bishop Jeffrey Clements

Thank you, to all who helped with the March 4th, 2020 Wednesday Noon Lenten Luncheon hosted by Good Shepherd. It was a great success and we couldn't have done it without all your help. We served 72 at noon, at our noon luncheon, for the evening meal we served 9.

 Due to current health concerns with the spread of the Coronavirus, NISWO has decided to cancel the Spring Retreat that was to be held April 18th at LOMC. If anyone has sent in their registration, your check will be returned to you. If anyone has already made purchases for the personal care kits we were planning to assemble that day, please contact Monica Groezinger from Trinity-Derinda, NW Conference Rep or Pennie Miller from Prince of Peace in Freeport (NISWO Treasurer), or Nancy Rice from Christ Lutheran in Stockton (NISWO Vice President). The NISWO Board members will follow thru with that effort for Lutheran World Relief.

“Be still, and know that I am God! I am exalted among the nations, I am exalted in the earth.” Psalm 46:10

Merciful God, in the stillness of our souls we listen for your voice to know again that you are God. Quiet our restless hearts with the knowledge that you are near us, keeping watch over your own. Rekindle our faith and light the lamp of hope within our hearts. Then take us by the hand into each day that lies ahead, for where you lead we can confidently go with Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Building a Foundation for Families

“Two are better than one, because they have good reward for their toil. For if they fall, one will lift up the other...” Ecclesiastes 4:9-10

Janie Murphy struggled with depression during her pregnancy. Doctors prescribed several medications, and she became addicted to pain medication, which spiraled into other problems that threatened not only her but also her three other children as well. “Drugs became a huge part of my every day,” she said of an addiction that lasted over 5 years.

Murphy found help with LSSI’s Intact Family Recovery Program, which provides parents with needed support such as case management, referrals to treatment programs, and guidance from caseworkers—all while keeping the family together, thus minimizing trauma for children.

When she enrolled in the Intact Family Recovery Program at LSSI, Murphy was terrified. “And then I met my caseworkers,” she said. “They were amazing.”

Murphy’s primary caseworker, Child Welfare Specialist Lee Taylor, met with Murphy and her kids regularly. He accompanied Murphy to her oldest daughter’s school to help her connect her with a counselor, so she could get the help she needed but was afraid to ask for.

“I love my job, because I’m able to connect with the families,” Taylor said. “I’m able to understand how they function on a daily basis and offer support.”

Murphy’s outlook changed dramatically in the three years she’s been sober. “Since I’ve been a part of the LSSI program, it has not only helped me to have confidence but also pushed me to get back out there,” she said. Helping other people is what I love to do. I found my passion.”

Taylor is proud of Murphy’s progress and noted she has successfully completed the program. She also secured a job and recently got a promotion. “Janie is doing everything possible to build a foundation. Her loving environment for her children is present and not she’s giving back to the community,” he said.

“It doesn’t matter how many times you fall,” Murphy said. “It matters what you do and how you get back up.”
